

STEVEN LUGO,

Plaintiff,

v.

CAROLYN W. COLVIN,
Acting Commissioner of Social Security,

Defendant.

Therefore, in light of the foregoing, the decision of the Commissioner is REVERSED and this case is REMANDED to the Social Security Administration for further proceedings pursuant to sentence four of 42 U.S.C. section 405(g). Upon remand, the Administrative Law Judge shall update the record, including evidence relating to Plaintiff's mental impairment; reevaluate the severity of Plaintiff's mental impairment pursuant to the special technique; reevaluate the medical opinions of record and explain the weight given to this evidence; consider the reasons why Plaintiff did not seek treatment; reassess Plaintiff's maximum residual functional capacity, particularly his reaching and handling limitations; and, if necessary, obtain supplemental evidence from a vocational expert to clarify the effect of the assessed limitations on the occupational base.

Entered this 3rd day of April, 2015.
